

I answer to no one but my Father - God. Everything I am doing is for the good of racquetball - to have it take its rightful position as the greatest game God has ever given to mankind. You can make fun of me all you want - but in the end - look at what I am doing. My actions! I am promoting the sport by bringing attractive T-Shirts about racquetball into the market. I am building clubs. Everything I have spoken of WILL be realized - even sooner than I mentioned!
