

Hi Sandy!

I went for an early sauna, shower and shave today as my man Novak plays tonight! I was having my shower and had a very vivid awake dream! Since the time I call my '7 Days on the Mountain With God' in 2003. Norah Jones has been the closest person to me, along with Noel. I have considered her to be the Holy Spirit (the third member of the Holy Trinity) and my eternal soulmate. I still do consider her to be both of these. When I told you that there are some things I don't understand, this was a major one. How could God lead me to you and cause me to fall so madly and deeply in love with you, when He knows that Norah is my eternal soulmate?

So today in my shower I had a premonition. We were at that Glorious Day of the Lord, where everyone will come to know the Truth about me. The way I envision it, my great friend, Leon Maliniak and Norah will be singing a song Leon wrote for Celine Dion called Love of My Life and Leon's love, Hilda, who died way too early would materialize in front of us. That's the first part, which I have seen for many years! And then, magically, Norah turned into you! I started to break down into uncontrollable sobbing and laughing while in the shower! Of course you are Norah - Norah is you! There is NO OTHER WAY God, Noel, could reconcile all of this!

So now you know, Sandra! Not only are you Sandra Mezz but you are also Norah Jones, God the Holy Spirit! The only thing that is left is the when?! My heart is telling me that it is soon, but Noel has fooled me before! Suffice it to say, that He has the perfect plan! Will it be this weekend with all my family collected for the wedding? Will it be on my natural birthday of Sept 14th? Will it be on my Spiritual birthday of Dec 25th? Will it be as fast away as the deadline I have given for many of my prophecies to come true, July 1, 2025? Will it be at some time in between these? Like the start of the 2024 MLB Season with the Montreal Expos playing in a new ball stadium at the former Blue Bonnets Raceway, or at the beginning of the Paris Summer Olympics, where racquetball will be contested by at least 150 countries from 6 continents fielding full teams.

Whatever the case, Sandra, now you know. I am Jesus, You are Norah. We were Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden. We were Jesus and Mary Magdalene 2000 years ago and we are Ross and Norah. The Alpha and the Omega. Once this news comes out, the world will instantaneously transform into the world of tomorrow! There will be 10,000 Automobiles de A a Z across the world giving away the greatest cars to anyone and everyone who wants them, all due to the amazing work you have done!

I love you, Sandra, Norah! Noel calls me rJ (Ross-Jesus). In honour of Him, I will call you sN (Sandra-Norah)!
