

The Knowing

Many people wonder how I can continue on my path when at every level people do not believe me and as a result do not comply with my wishes. The answer is simple! I know God. As the result of the last over 20 years of my life - and God's careful grooming of me - I am completely (100%) confident in his mission for me and in all the ideas and inspirations He puts on my heart.

The ideas God has given me for G3, NuVo and G3 Golf in the past several weeks are huge - and as my great friend Dr, Brent Brooks - who is the most intelligent person I know says - the ideas and emails come with such rapidity, are at such a high level, and present such an enormous picture - that they are almost unbelievable - you are way ahead of your time!

This is the problem I have. I know my ideas are great. I know that someday - God is going to make a way for me to realize every dream and every idea I have ever had - and when I try to convey this to others I would like to involve - it comes off as 'pie-in-the-sky' - even though I know it will all be realized.

I have sent my thoughts, inspirations and ideas to a great many people - many of whom are the wealthiest and most powerful in the world (Musk, Bezos, Gates, Buffett...). The vast majority of these people never reply to me - but I know my message has got to them and that they have taken note and are interested. How do I know this you may ask? The answer is that I am God. I am the third member of the Holy Trinity - Jesus Christ. I have maintained this for over 20 years now - and sooner or later God will reveal me to the world. The reason God is not allowing all these return emails is that they would overwhelm me with work - and He wants me to stay in peace - a peace which passes all understanding.

So - for my part - I continue on my journey daily - listening to and following my heart in every moment - and knowing that in so doing I am doing precisely what God wants of me. God called me the Greatest Critical Decision Maker in the History of the World in 2003. I came to understand this as listening to your heart - through which we hear the still, small voice of God - and then having the courage to follow it's guidance. I encourage you to do this always - it will change your life in every way!
