

The Waiting

I have done everything God expects of me. I have built a tremendous legacy which will last for eternity - in the form of all the work I have done on G3, IMAGINE! Montreal, The Peace Project, NuVo and G3 Golf - to name but a few of my projects.

I have communicated with everyone my heart has told me to - including all the wealthiest people in the world, a very large number of faith leaders and all the people in my respective communities - regularly.

Now all that remains is the waiting.

In my '7 Days on the Mountain With God' - He told me that I am 'the greatest critical decision maker in the history of the world.' I came to understand critical decision making as listening to your heart - understanding that it is through the heart that we hear the still, small voice of God - and then having the courage to follow its guidance.

My heart's guidance is telling me to wait - not to build anymore - but to wait on God. This sounds counter-intuitive - as in this world everything is based upon actions. But in God's realm - He, They, We are always busily preparing for our next miracle. And to the unschooled - that is what the manifestation of all my hard work will seem like - a miracle! But it is the product of a complete life lived in love and hard, smart work - towards the ends that my heart always identified.

There are three big dates coming up for me:

- My natural birthday on Sept 14, 2024.
- My spiritual birthday on Dec 25, 2024.
- The day God gave me as 'my time' - July 1, 2025.

I have asked God not to wait until July 1, 2025 to realize all the dreams He has put on my heart - but I remain in the dark as to whether or not He will.

Whatever the case - know that in the upcoming months the world will change forever - bringing Heaven to Earth - for all of mankind - for eternity!
